

TIGARD MUNICIPAL CODE

Chapter 2.07 CODE OF CONDUCT FOR APPOINTED OFFICIALS OF BOARDS, COMMITTEES AND COMMISSIONS.

Sections:

- 2.07.010 Purpose.
- 2.07.020 Code Of Conduct.
- 2.07.030 Removal Process.

2.07.010 Purpose.

A committee member is appointed with the belief that the person will serve with integrity, perform the duties of the position and obey the laws of the federal, state, and local governments. This is required to protect the public's confidence in their local government's fair and effective operation.

This chapter applies to all boards, committees and commissions established by the City of Tigard. (Ord. 10-17 §1 (Exh. A), 2010).

2.07.020 Code Of Conduct.

The Tigard City Council shall define the Code of Conduct required of appointed committee members. The Code of Conduct shall be passed by Council resolution.

A violation of the Code of Conduct shall not be considered a basis for challenging the validity of any City committee decision. (Ord. 10-17 §1 (Exh. A), 2010).

2.07.030 Removal Process.

A City committee member may be removed by the appointing authority for misconduct, nonperformance of duty or failure to obey the laws of the federal, state and local governments.

Early recognition of the questioned conduct is encouraged. Progressive counsel may occur with the committee member but is not required prior to removal from committee by the appointing authority. (Ord. 10-17 §1 (Exh. A), 2010). ■
