presumption that the respondent had the required notice.

E. The hearing for determination as to whether an infraction has been committed shall take place in the manner described in Sections 1.16.250 through 1.16.300 and 1.16.320 of this code.

7.42.050 Remedies

A. Upon finding that the respondent has violated this chapter, the court may:

1. Require that the chronic nuisance property be closed and secured against all use and occupancy for a period of not less than 30, but not more than 180, days; and/or

2. If the court determines a property to be a chronic nuisance property, the court may impose a civil penalty of up to $1,000 per day for each day a nuisance activity occurred on the property after three nuisance activities have occurred on the property within a 120-day time period.

3. Employ any other remedy deemed by the court to be appropriate to abate the nuisance.

B. In lieu of closure of the property pursuant to subsection A of this section, the respondent may file a bond acceptable to the court. Such bond shall be in an amount set by the court not to exceed the value of the property closed as determined by the court, and shall be conditioned upon the non-recurrence of any of the acts or behaviors listed at Section 7.42.020.C of this chapter for a period of one year after the judgment. Acceptance of the bond described herein is further subject to the court's satisfaction of the respondent's good faith commitment to abatement of the nuisance. (Ord. 94-11; Ord. 15-17 §1)

7.42.060 Defenses—Mitigation of Civil Penalty

A. It is a defense to an action brought pursuant to this chapter that the responsible party at the time in question could not, in the exercise of reasonable care or diligence, determine that the property had become chronic nuisance property, or could not, in spite of the exercise of reasonable care and diligence, control the conduct leading to the finding that the property is chronic nuisance property. However, it is no defense under this subsection that the party was not at the property at the time of the incidents leading to the chronic nuisance situation.

B. In implementing the remedies described in this chapter, the court may consider any of the following factors, as they may be appropriate, and shall cite those found applicable:

1. The actions taken by the owner(s) to mitigate or correct the problem at the property;

2. The financial condition of the owner;

3. Whether the problem at the property was repeated or continuous;

4. The magnitude or gravity of the problem;

5. The cooperativeness of the owner(s) with the city in remedying the problem;

6. The cost to the city of investigating and correcting or attempting to correct the condition;

In addition to any other remedy available to the city under this chapter, in the event that the chief of police finds that a property constitutes an immediate threat to the public safety and welfare, the city may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for such interim relief as is deemed by the city manager to be appropriate. In such event, the notification and commencement of action procedures set forth in Sections 7.42.040 and 7.42.045 need not be complied with. (Ord. 03-08; Ord. 94-11)

7.42.080 Enforcement of Closure Order—Costs—Civil Penalty

A. The court may authorize the city to physically secure the property against use or occupancy in the event that the owner(s) fail to do so within the time specified by the court.

B. The court may assess on the property owner the following costs incurred by the city in effecting a closure of property:

1. Costs incurred in actually physically securing the property against use;

2. Administrative costs and attorneys fees in bringing the action for violation of this chapter.

C. The city manager may, within 14 days of written decision by the court, submit a signed and detailed statement of costs to the court for its review. If no objection to the statement is made within the period prescribed by Oregon Rule of Civil Procedure 68, a copy of the statement, including a legal description of the property, shall be forwarded to the office of the city finance director who thereafter shall enter the same in the city's lien docket in the same manner prescribed by Section 1.16.710 of this code.

7.42.085 Tenant Relocation Costs

A "tenant" (as defined by ORS 90.100(16)) of chronic nuisance property may be entitled to reasonable relocation costs, if without actual notice the tenant moved into the property after the property owner or his/her agent received notice of an action brought pursuant to this chapter. Any allowable costs will be determined by the city, and shall be a liability upon the owner of the chronic nuisance property. (Ord. 94-11)

7.42.090 Attorney Fees

In any action brought pursuant to this chapter, the court may, in its discretion, award reasonable attorneys fees to the prevailing party. (Ord. 94-11)

7.42.100 Severability

If any provision of this chapter, or its application to any person or circumstance, is held to be invalid for any reason, the remainder of the chapter, or the application of its provisions to other persons or circumstances, shall not in any way be affected. (Ord. 94-11)
