Information About the Proposal

Description of the Proposal:

The Applicant requests approval of a 335-unit single-family residential planned development/subdivision on a site 79.82 acres in size. The request includes both Concept Plan Review and Detailed Development Plan Review of the Planned Development. This application includes a request for a Sensitive Lands Permit, Subdivision Preliminary Plat, Public Facilities Exception, Early Grading Authorization, and Type II Adjustments (1. To allow parking lots within 40 feet of the River Terrace Boulevard ROW; 2. To allow one access directly onto River Terrace Boulevard). The subject site is located in the southeast corner of SW Roy Rogers Road and SW Bull Mountain Road, within the River Terrace Community Plan area. The site includes two zones: R-7 and R-12. The proposed development includes 219 detached single-family homes and 116 multi-family units, open space tracts for protection of an on-site wetlands and drainage ways, and smaller open space tracts with pedestrian connections. The proposal also includes a neighborhood park in the center of the site. The development is unique to River Terrace as it proposes an active-adult (55-and-up) community that provides single-story homes and amenities such as bocce ball courts, pickle ball courts, lap pool, and clubhouse with exercise. The proposed development includes a network of local residential streets, private alleys and private streets, a section of proposed collector street River Terrace Boulevard and associated trail through the center of the site.
