Process for selection of a new City of Tigard Council member to serve until December 31, 2004

Craig Dirksen was appointed as Mayor for the City of Tigard by the Tigard City Council on January 13, 2004. There is now a Councilor vacancy on the City Council and the City Council agreed on the following process to fill the position:

- Persons interested in being considered for appointment to the position of City Councilor must complete the Citizen Interest Application and answer the three questions listed below.
- Completed applications must be submitted to Assistant to the City Manager Liz Newton, 13125 SW Hall Boulevard, Tigard, OR 97223, by noon on February 6, 2004.
- Persons interested in being considered for appointment must be a registered voter of the City of Tigard and must have been a resident within the Tigard City limits since February 24, 2003.
- Persons interested in being considered for appointment must give information on how they can be contacted on February 11, 2004, 8 a.m. – 5 p.m., should they be selected as a candidate to be interviewed for the vacant Council position.
- Persons interested in being considered for appointment must be available the evening of February 12, 2004, for an interview with the Tigard Council, should they be selected as a candidate for the vacant Council position.
- The tentative schedule is for appointment and swearing in of the successful Council candidate on either February 24 or March 9, 2004.

The following are the questions for the Council candidates:

1. Why do you want to take on this appointment?
2. What qualities would you bring to the Council?
3. What would you like to see accomplished by the City Council during your tenure?

The limit of words to respond to each question is 200. Please attach your responses to the above questions to the completed Citizen Interest Application.

If you have questions, please contact Cathy Wheatley or Liz Newton at 503-639-4171.
