Family Fun Egg Hunt at Cook Park on March 26

Rain or shine, the City of Tigard will be celebrating the much-anticipated arrival of spring in Northwest with an egg hunt and other family-friendly activities in Cook Park the morning of March 26.

The events will run from 9 a.m. to noon, and will include an egg hunt for children up to 10 years of age, crafts and a visit from the big bunny.

Participants are encouraged to register online before March 23 at: www.tigard-or.gov/egg hunt. This will be a BYOB—bring your own basket—event.

What: Family egg hunt and more!
Where: Cook Park, 17005 SW 92nd Ave.
When: Saturday, March 26, 9 a.m.-noon
Who: All families and their children

The egg hunt is the first of many future community activities the city is planning to promote recreational activities for Tigard residents of all ages. Community events help to promote the city's vision for connecting residents with the city and their neighbors.
