Community Preparedness Fair Returns to Cook Park

Jump start your emergency preparedness on Friday, July 20, from 6 to 9 p.m. with a free preparedness fair, barbecue and concert in Cook Park.

“This information is vital for our community,” says Mike Lueck, Tigard’s emergency services coordinator. “You may be on your own for several days after a major disaster. The Preparedness Fair is an opportunity to get prepared for this critical time.”

Participants can learn how to turn off utilities, make an emergency preparedness kit, purify water, cook without electricity or gas and more.

The event will take place in Cook Park, at the end of 92nd Avenue just off Durham Road near Tigard High School. The fair offers music by Robbie Laws Band, a free barbecue, activities, vendor booths and information to help families prepare for emergencies at home and at work.

For more information, including how to get involved in Tigard’s emergency preparedness and resiliency activities, contact Mike Lueck at mikel@tigard-or.gov or 503-718-2593.
