Pedestrian Dies of Injuries After Being Struck By Vehicle

A 90 year-old Beaverton woman died the following day of injuries apparently sustained after being struck by a vehicle. The incident occurred when the victim, Martha Neal, was attempting to cross on foot Pacific Highway at Hall Blvd. The incident occurred Monday, February 16, 2015 at approximately 3:00 p.m.

The victim was in the crosswalk when she was struck by a vehicle driven by Barbara Grant of Tigard. A Tigard Police officer was in the immediate vicinity and arrived within moments to render aid. The driver stopped immediately and offered help, as well as several other witnesses until emergency medical personnel arrived. The victim was transported by ambulance to OHSU where she died early this morning.

Tigard Police is currently investigating the incident. No citations have been issued but may be forthcoming pending the outcome of the investigation.
