Tigard Police Investigating Toddler Death

On Friday, November 7, 2014 at approximately 3:00 p.m., Tigard Police were called to an apartment located on the 14600 block of SW 76th in Tigard on a report of a possible domestic issue. Rather, when officers arrived they found two parents with an unresponsive 2 year-old. Tigard officers began CPR and continued with lifesaving efforts until emergency medical help arrived. The young boy died at the scene. A Tigard Police Chaplain was also on-hand to offer assistance to the family present.

An autopsy had been conducted over the weekend. The medical examiner determined no specific cause of death. Tigard Police detectives are continuing the investigation and are awaiting toxicology reports.
