Tigard Police Investigating Overnight Stabbing

On Monday, March 17, at approximately 11:15 p.m., a 9-1-1 call stated that a man was bleeding and lying on a sidewalk near Pacific Highway and Garrett Street in Tigard. Tigard Police was quickly on scene with the reported stabbing subject along with emergency medical personnel. Other Tigard Police units were dispatched to the Cypress Crest Apartments located 9800 SW Frewing St. after another 9-1-1 call reported a stabbing at the location.

Tigard Police are presently investigating the incident. Witness statements provided to police indicate that a 48 year-old male who was stabbed and a 47 year-old female subject allegedly involved in the incident are acquainted. Police also report that both parties involved were intoxicated at the time.

The stabbed male is being treated for serious injuries at OHSU. The investigation is ongoing.
