Vehicle Driven Into Tigard Post Office Injures One

A 76 year-old Tigard woman was injured when a vehicle crashed through the windows of the Tigard Branch of the US Postal Service. The facility is located 11210 SW Main St. in Tigard. The crash occurred on June 23 at approximately 11:50 a.m. The victim was struck while standing at the customer service counter when the vehicle crashed through the front floor to ceiling windows. The victim was transported by ambulance to OHSU with what appeared non-life threatening injuries.

The driver, 64 year-old Susan Deichmiller of Tigard was not injured. Deichmiller was fully cooperative with police. Police did not detect any impairment nor suspect any medical-related episode which may have contributed to the incident. No citations have been issued.
