Tigard Police Designated as Top Tip-A-Cop Fundraiser

In a recent communication from Special Olympics Oregon, the Tigard Police Department was identified as the top fundraising agency within the entire state of Oregon as a result of the recent Tip-A-Cop event. In cooperation with the Red Robin Restaurant located at Washington Square in Tigard, the annual Tip-A-Cop event held on October 24th brought in $5313.00. The money collected in Tigard came from the generous support of guests who dined at the restaurant during the day-long event. Tip-A-Cop took place across the state from Portland to Medford with nearly twenty law enforcement agencies participating.

The Tigard Police Department would like to thank everyone who played a role in the good natured competition that brings awareness and needed funding to continue worthwhile programs under the direction of Special Olympics Oregon. For decades, law enforcement throughout Oregon has been closely supportive of Special Olympics and the annual Tip-A-Cop event is one of several fundraising efforts conducted with support by police.
