Tigard Police Sex Abuse Investigation Leads To Conviction of Florida Man

On December 3rd, after a three-day trial concluded, a Washington County jury found a 59 year-old Florida man guilty on eight counts of felony sex abuse. David Wayne Brooker was sentenced to 20 years in state prison.

A Tigard Police-led investigation began in 2013 when detectives received information from a Jackson County investigator that Brooker allegedly molested a child over a 2-3 year period (2005-2007). The female victim was between 5 and 7 years-old at that time and was living in Tigard when the abuse occurred. A lengthy investigation led by Tigard Police ultimately concluded with Brooker's indictment by a Washington County grand jury in October, 2014. Brooker was subsequently arrested in Florida in January 2015.

David Pasiemiak, the second abuser, is currently wanted for his alleged role in molesting the same victim between 2009 and 2011. On a related matter, the victim's mother, Darlene Malone, was also arrested and convicted of Criminal Mistreatment in 2014 for failing to protect her daughter from David Pasiemiak, who remains outstanding.

Pasiemiak currently has warrants for his arrest and believed to be in the Portland area. Anyone with information regarding his whereabouts is urged to call Tigard Police at 503-718-COPS (2677).
