Tigard Investigators Arrest Deli Robber

Late evening on July 20, 2016, members of the Tigard Police Commercial Crimes Unit arrested a 38 year-old Tigard man who allegedly robbed a Tigard Deli earlier in the week. Keith Brian Martin was taken into custody without incident at the Tigard Police Department.

Martin agreed to come to the Tigard Police Department for an interview after Tigard investigators identified him as a suspect in the Foxy's Deli robbery which occurred on July 19. Video surveillance obtained from the business depicted a man with black face paint carrying a rifle. Martin allegedly ran off with cash after pointing a rifle at an employee and demanding money. No one was injured during the incident.

Martin is charged with Robbery I, Theft I, Unauthorized Use of a Weapon, Felon in Possession of a Weapon and Menacing. Martin is currently being held at the Washington County Jail.
