Tigard Bank Robbery Suspect Arrested

Detectives with the Tigard Police Commercial Crimes Unit have arrested a man who allegedly robbed the Tigard Key Bank on February 27th, 2017. Immediately after the incident, Tigard investigators began developing leads which ultimately identified Kevin J. Castle as the person responsible for the robbery. A Washington County Grand Jury indicted Castle on March 10th. On the evening of March 14th, Tigard Police investigators, along with assisting U.S. Marshals, located Castle who was staying at a Gresham apartment. Castle was taken into custody without incident.

Castle is charged with Robbery II and is currently being held at the Washington County Jail in Hillsboro.

The Tigard Police Commercial Crimes Unit is a unique investigatory group which works to expressly investigate crimes against commercial entities all while supporting business enterprise in Tigard. The goal of the unit is to reduce business victimization by lending training and support.
