Tigard Police Enforcing Downtown Parking Restrictions

Beginning in June, Tigard Police began enforcing the 2-hour parking limits in the downtown Tigard area. That effort was in response for the need to alleviate parking congestion and/or lack of available parking spaces downtown. A renewed downtown vibrancy resulted in more visitors to the area. Initially, Tigard officers issued warnings to violators in the effort to help motorists adjust to the changes in parking restrictions. Effective September 13, officers will begin to issue citations. The fine for exceeding the 2-hour parking limits is $50.

This change to parking enforcement applies only to the 2-hour parking restriction as defined in the Tigard Municipal Code. All other state-statute parking violations remain unchanged and fully enforced.
