Tigard Police Participating In Special Olympics Fundraiser

Tigard Police give a whole new meaning to “protect and serve” at an upcoming Tip-a-Cop event. Tigard officers will serve as celebrity waiters and donate all the tips collected to Oregon Special Olympics. The annual fundraiser will take place on Saturday, October 21st at the Red Robin Restaurant located at 10100 SW Washington Square Rd. in Tigard. The event is scheduled from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. and resume from 5 p.m. until 9 pm at the Washington Square Mall location.

A host of Tigard Police officers will be participating in efforts to raise awareness and money to help support the Oregon Special Olympics. This event is considered to be one of the most essential fundraisers to help continue the important work of Oregon Special Olympics to provide year-round sports training and competition for children and adults with intellectual and physical disabilities.

The fittingly titled Tip-a-Cop event is an opportunity for local law enforcement to help. Tigard officers will assist wait staff throughout the day and find opportunity to speak to restaurant guests about the event and how they can help if interested. Last year, Tigard Police Department was recognized as the top fundraising agency in Oregon for the third straight year. The agency hopes to continue with this tradition. Please consider stopping in and joining the Tigard Police for this worthwhile effort. For more information, please visit: www.soor.org
