Tigard Police Arrest Corvallis Man For Sex Abuse

On December 20, Tigard Police investigators arrested a Corvallis man on seven counts of sex abuse. Muhammad L. Hasan, 50, was taken into custody at his residence in Corvallis without incident. Hasan was indicted last week by a Washington County Grand Jury.

The sex abuse investigation headed by Tigard Police, involved two female juvenile victims. The abuse reportedly began in 2016 when both girls were clients of Hasan at his Tigard business. Hasan operated AICQ, which provided private instruction on the Quran. The business operated out of a store-front located at 11505 SW Pacific Highway in Tigard.

Tigard Police investigators suspect there may be other victims. Anyone with knowledge of possible abuse is urged to contact 503-718-COPS (2677) or via email at: tips@tigard-or.gov

Hasan is lodged in the Washington County Jail.
