Jason Snider was elected Mayor of the City of Tigard, Oregon in November 2018. Prior to his election as Mayor, he served on the Tigard City Council including the City Council President from 2015 to 2018.

Mayor Snider has been a Tigard resident since 1999. He is the administrator of Kaiser Permanente Northwest's Regional General Surgery and Plastic Surgery Departments, and began his career as a clinical manager at American Medical Response.

In the past year, Mayor Snider and the City Council:

- Ensured the completion of the Tigard Street Heritage Trail, which includes an outdoor museum.
- Identified a local option levy as the best option to maintain a safe and secure Tigard
- Increased transparency by issuing the first-ever City Report Card.
- Presided over the completion of a citywide performance audit.
- Supported the inaugural Multi-City Equity Summit.

In 2020, the Mayor and City Council will continue to implement Council goals which include, financial stability, economic growth, smart and inclusive growth, meaningful community engagement, and strategic plan implementation.
