Dirksen Nature Park is Tigard’s second largest park and offers a mix of mature forest, wetlands, and open space. The area is home to turtles, frogs, salamanders, red-tailed hawks, owls, and herons.

The park was named in honor of former mayor Craig Dirksen, who was a proponent for the acquisition of park land and open space.

FEATURES & HIGHLIGHTS

» Ball field rentals
» Natural area
» Education building
» Outdoor fitness equipment
Our mission:

“Provide healthy and diverse recreational opportunities through programs, events, parks, and natural areas, for all ages and abilities, ensuring that the City of Tigard is a desirable place to live and play.”

Check out Tigard’s Parks and Recreation Program’s seasonal Activity Guide to learn what’s happening in your neighborhood and throughout the city.

If you’re looking to learn a new hobby, meet some new friends, develop your skills, get out of the house or just be entertained – we have something for you.

For more information:

www.tigard-or.gov/recreation

Anthony Markey
Recreation Coordinator
503-718-2584
Recreation@tigard-or.gov