Pedestrian Struck While Crossing Pacific Highway in Tigard

On January 17, 2016 at approximately 6:00 p.m., a 43 year-old Portland man was struck by a vehicle while attempting to cross Pacific Highway at Canterbury Lane in Tigard. The victim was reportedly in the crosswalk when hit by a northbound Dodge pickup truck. The victim was transported by ambulance to OHSU with serious injuries. His current condition is not known.

The driver involved, 74 year-old John Robert Hanlon of Tigard, remained at the scene and cooperated with police. While investigating, Tigard Police did not detect any signs of impairment with the driver. Witnesses told police that the pickup driven by Hanlon did not stop for a red light and struck the pedestrian in the roadway. Hanlon was issued a citation for Careless Driving, Fail to Obey a Traffic Control Device and Failure to Stop and Remain Stopped for a Pedestrian. Other charges may be forthcoming.
